

BISHOPS CREATED.

Work of the M. E. Church South General Conference This Morning.

Rev. Atticus G. Haygood and Rev. Oscar Fitzgerald Added to the College.

Dr. Haygood Wins on the First Ballot and Dr. Fitzgerald on the Fourth—A Spirited Contest, in Which Revs. H. C. Morris, David Mortimer, R. N. Sied and Others Participated—Details of the Novel Election—How the Nominations Were Made, the Vote Taken and Recorded—Some Interesting Biographical Sketches of the New Prebends of the Church—The Ordination.

Two bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church South were elected this morning at the General Conference. The General Conference did not assemble until a few minutes after 9 o'clock, when Bishop Wilson called for order. The preliminary exercises were conducted by Rev. J. H. McLean of the North Texas Conference. He read the twelfth chapter of Romans and sang the following hymn:

Lord, in the strength of grace,
With a glad heart and free,
I consecrate to thee,
I consecrate to thee.

Thy ransomed servant, I,
Restore to Thee 'Tis mine own
And, from this hour and day,
To serve my God alone.

There was little business of a general character before the hour for the bishops' election arrived. Bishop Granberry, who was then presiding, called the special order. He

Bishop Atticus Grene Haygood, requested the delegates to enter upon the election prayerfully and with a due sense of the importance of the occasion. At his request Bishop Wilson read Charles Wesley's hymn:

Draw near, O Son of God, draw near!
As with Thy flaming eye behold;
And let our candlestick be gold,
And let our candlestick be gold.

Still hold the stars in Thy right hand
And let them in Thy glory glow;
The lights of a beautiful land,
The lights of a beautiful land.

Make good the promise Thou hast made,
Their high commission let them prove;
Be temples of the Holy Spirit,
And let them in Thy glory glow.

Their hearts from things of earth remove;
Sprinkle them, Lord, from sin and fear;
And let their hearts be pure and true,
And let them in Thy glory glow.

Dr. Rodgers of Baltimore prayed that all unholy ambitions would be forgotten, that there would be no strife, and that the choice of bishops be made for the good of the church.

Bishop Granberry appointed as tellers: R. M. Powers, of North Texas, A. C. Miller of North Alabama, R. H. Smart of South Carolina, Richard W. Peabody of Virginia, C. Dixon of North Carolina and J. O. Branch of South Georgia.

Rev. John D. Vinell and Rev. J. M. Mason recorded the vote. On the first ballot 272 votes were cast. The tellers turned over to Reading Clerk J. T. Tiggert the contents of their lists. He then read the vote to the recorders in a large, symmetrical smattering voice.

There were no nominations before the balloting. Men were nominated by votes of all the delegates. Evidently they had been very industrious in ascertaining the direction of the numerous prelates in the general conference.

THE FIRST BALLOT.
The call of the vote to the recorders went on steadily in 15 seconds without any manifestation from the audience. At that moment, when Mr. Tiggert called the 13th ballot for Atticus G. Haygood, there was a heavy rattling of applause, and for five minutes there was tumult. Dr. Haygood was elected. Little attention was paid to the remainder of the call, as evidently there would not be another election in the first ballot, and the vote for the various candidates would not indicate their vote in a succeeding ballot. All the pages were in demand. A large number of delegates were absent, and the first ballot was recorded at 11:45 o'clock and announced.

The vote (and candidates) was as follows:
Atticus G. Haygood..... 20
O. P. Fitzgerald..... 17
David Mortimer..... 15
H. C. Morris..... 13
R. N. Sied..... 12
P. A. Peterson..... 10
R. M. Powers..... 8
A. C. Miller..... 7
R. H. Smart..... 6
Richard W. Peabody..... 5
C. Dixon..... 4
J. O. Branch..... 3

The following candidates received scattering votes: J. H. McLean, Anson West, A. C. Smith, W. A. Neal, W. D. Anderson, G. Andrews, S. A. Steele, J. D. Hammond, James K. Mann, E. A. Yates, J. J. Tiggert, Paul W. Hatcher, R. A. H. Hatcher, Samuel Rodgers, John A. Karp, H. H. Mahon, John P. Prichett, J. Atkins, W. T. Harris, A. L. Sutherland, J. W. Hinton, W. D. Anderson.

The votes cast for Reading Clerk Tiggert created much amusement and there was an uproar when Rev. David J. Walker was voted for. Mr. Walker is the fraternal delegate from the British Wesleyan Conference and is not a member of the M. E. Church South, the vote was illegal.

The vote cast for Rev. R. M. Meek of Oklahoma was also illegal.

There was a surprise to every one. He was supported by St. Louis Conference and some Kentuckians. Kentucky scattered her vote, having to many favorite sons: Rev. David Mortimer, the Secretary of the Church Extension Board, has his home in Louisville; Rev. H. C. Morris, though in charge of a church in Atlanta, Ga., is a Kentuckian, and received approval from that state.

Howard Henderson told the following story of his life in the Western Christian Advocate: He was born at Watkinsonville, Ga., November 10, 1822, and hence, possessed of a vigorous constitution, kept himself by mental and physical activity, in his manhood's prime. He is the picture of health. He was educated at Emory College, Oxford, Ga., in 1846 and the same year married Mrs. Mary Farborough, the daughter of a veteran Methodist minister. She is the serene mistress of a lovely establishment at Sheffield, Ala., where the family now reside. The house is new, with broad verandas, shaded with native forest trees, looking over a beautiful view of the river, beyond, in the broad basin of which shimmer the fields of cotton.

He was licensed to preach in his senior year, and immediately upon graduation he joined the Georgia Conference. As pastor and presiding elder he manifested great executive ability. In 1870 he was elected editor of Sunday-school books of the Church South. In 1872 he was honored with the presidency of Emory College, and remained there until the end of 1884. The college had an endowment of only $15,000 when he took the helm; but this, mainly through the liberality of George L. Searcy, who became president, and Dr. Haygood's strong personality, was brought up to $100,000. Additions were made to the building, library, laboratory and cabinet.

Having an immeasurable capacity for work, from 1878 to 1882 he combined with his college work the editing of the Western Christian Advocate, and his position as president of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Cincinnati, 1883. In 1882 he was made agent of the Slater Fund, which he has administered with singular skill. John F. Slater, a millionaire, bequeathed to the church the sum of $1,000,000 to assist in the education of the freedmen. A board of trustees was organized, consisting of President R. H. Hayes, Chief Justice M. R. Waite, William E. Dodge, and the Rev. Dr. Phillips Brooks and six other eminent citizens. The board wisely selected Dr. Haygood to administer the annual revenue, carrying out the Slater fund, and his administration has been administered in no partisan, sectional or sectarian spirit, of a generous patriotism and an enlightened Christian faith.

Dr. Haygood has been a member of the Freedmen's Aid Society, and other philanthropic agencies. In the execution of his duties and surveying the situation that he might act intelligently, he traveled 20,000 miles in a single year, everywhere speaking in behalf of philanthropy and using the influence of his personal presence to stimulate local education and other benevolent enterprises. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

He was a surprise to every one. He was supported by St. Louis Conference and some Kentuckians. Kentucky scattered her vote, having to many favorite sons: Rev. David Mortimer, the Secretary of the Church Extension Board, has his home in Louisville; Rev. H. C. Morris, though in charge of a church in Atlanta, Ga., is a Kentuckian, and received approval from that state.

Howard Henderson told the following story of his life in the Western Christian Advocate: He was born at Watkinsonville, Ga., November 10, 1822, and hence, possessed of a vigorous constitution, kept himself by mental and physical activity, in his manhood's prime. He is the picture of health. He was educated at Emory College, Oxford, Ga., in 1846 and the same year married Mrs. Mary Farborough, the daughter of a veteran Methodist minister. She is the serene mistress of a lovely establishment at Sheffield, Ala., where the family now reside. The house is new, with broad verandas, shaded with native forest trees, looking over a beautiful view of the river, beyond, in the broad basin of which shimmer the fields of cotton.

He was licensed to preach in his senior year, and immediately upon graduation he joined the Georgia Conference. As pastor and presiding elder he manifested great executive ability. In 1870 he was elected editor of Sunday-school books of the Church South. In 1872 he was honored with the presidency of Emory College, and remained there until the end of 1884. The college had an endowment of only $15,000 when he took the helm; but this, mainly through the liberality of George L. Searcy, who became president, and Dr. Haygood's strong personality, was brought up to $100,000. Additions were made to the building, library, laboratory and cabinet.

Having an immeasurable capacity for work, from 1878 to 1882 he combined with his college work the editing of the Western Christian Advocate, and his position as president of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Cincinnati, 1883. In 1882 he was made agent of the Slater Fund, which he has administered with singular skill. John F. Slater, a millionaire, bequeathed to the church the sum of $1,000,000 to assist in the education of the freedmen. A board of trustees was organized, consisting of President R. H. Hayes, Chief Justice M. R. Waite, William E. Dodge, and the Rev. Dr. Phillips Brooks and six other eminent citizens. The board wisely selected Dr. Haygood to administer the annual revenue, carrying out the Slater fund, and his administration has been administered in no partisan, sectional or sectarian spirit, of a generous patriotism and an enlightened Christian faith.

Dr. Haygood has been a member of the Freedmen's Aid Society, and other philanthropic agencies. In the execution of his duties and surveying the situation that he might act intelligently, he traveled 20,000 miles in a single year, everywhere speaking in behalf of philanthropy and using the influence of his personal presence to stimulate local education and other benevolent enterprises. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

He was a surprise to every one. He was supported by St. Louis Conference and some Kentuckians. Kentucky scattered her vote, having to many favorite sons: Rev. David Mortimer, the Secretary of the Church Extension Board, has his home in Louisville; Rev. H. C. Morris, though in charge of a church in Atlanta, Ga., is a Kentuckian, and received approval from that state.

Howard Henderson told the following story of his life in the Western Christian Advocate: He was born at Watkinsonville, Ga., November 10, 1822, and hence, possessed of a vigorous constitution, kept himself by mental and physical activity, in his manhood's prime. He is the picture of health. He was educated at Emory College, Oxford, Ga., in 1846 and the same year married Mrs. Mary Farborough, the daughter of a veteran Methodist minister. She is the serene mistress of a lovely establishment at Sheffield, Ala., where the family now reside. The house is new, with broad verandas, shaded with native forest trees, looking over a beautiful view of the river, beyond, in the broad basin of which shimmer the fields of cotton.

He was licensed to preach in his senior year, and immediately upon graduation he joined the Georgia Conference. As pastor and presiding elder he manifested great executive ability. In 1870 he was elected editor of Sunday-school books of the Church South. In 1872 he was honored with the presidency of Emory College, and remained there until the end of 1884. The college had an endowment of only $15,000 when he took the helm; but this, mainly through the liberality of George L. Searcy, who became president, and Dr. Haygood's strong personality, was brought up to $100,000. Additions were made to the building, library, laboratory and cabinet.

Having an immeasurable capacity for work, from 1878 to 1882 he combined with his college work the editing of the Western Christian Advocate, and his position as president of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Cincinnati, 1883. In 1882 he was made agent of the Slater Fund, which he has administered with singular skill. John F. Slater, a millionaire, bequeathed to the church the sum of $1,000,000 to assist in the education of the freedmen. A board of trustees was organized, consisting of President R. H. Hayes, Chief Justice M. R. Waite, William E. Dodge, and the Rev. Dr. Phillips Brooks and six other eminent citizens. The board wisely selected Dr. Haygood to administer the annual revenue, carrying out the Slater fund, and his administration has been administered in no partisan, sectional or sectarian spirit, of a generous patriotism and an enlightened Christian faith.

Dr. Haygood has been a member of the Freedmen's Aid Society, and other philanthropic agencies. In the execution of his duties and surveying the situation that he might act intelligently, he traveled 20,000 miles in a single year, everywhere speaking in behalf of philanthropy and using the influence of his personal presence to stimulate local education and other benevolent enterprises. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

He was a surprise to every one. He was supported by St. Louis Conference and some Kentuckians. Kentucky scattered her vote, having to many favorite sons: Rev. David Mortimer, the Secretary of the Church Extension Board, has his home in Louisville; Rev. H. C. Morris, though in charge of a church in Atlanta, Ga., is a Kentuckian, and received approval from that state.

Howard Henderson told the following story of his life in the Western Christian Advocate: He was born at Watkinsonville, Ga., November 10, 1822, and hence, possessed of a vigorous constitution, kept himself by mental and physical activity, in his manhood's prime. He is the picture of health. He was educated at Emory College, Oxford, Ga., in 1846 and the same year married Mrs. Mary Farborough, the daughter of a veteran Methodist minister. She is the serene mistress of a lovely establishment at Sheffield, Ala., where the family now reside. The house is new, with broad verandas, shaded with native forest trees, looking over a beautiful view of the river, beyond, in the broad basin of which shimmer the fields of cotton.

He was licensed to preach in his senior year, and immediately upon graduation he joined the Georgia Conference. As pastor and presiding elder he manifested great executive ability. In 1870 he was elected editor of Sunday-school books of the Church South. In 1872 he was honored with the presidency of Emory College, and remained there until the end of 1884. The college had an endowment of only $15,000 when he took the helm; but this, mainly through the liberality of George L. Searcy, who became president, and Dr. Haygood's strong personality, was brought up to $100,000. Additions were made to the building, library, laboratory and cabinet.

Having an immeasurable capacity for work, from 1878 to 1882 he combined with his college work the editing of the Western Christian Advocate, and his position as president of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Cincinnati, 1883. In 1882 he was made agent of the Slater Fund, which he has administered with singular skill. John F. Slater, a millionaire, bequeathed to the church the sum of $1,000,000 to assist in the education of the freedmen. A board of trustees was organized, consisting of President R. H. Hayes, Chief Justice M. R. Waite, William E. Dodge, and the Rev. Dr. Phillips Brooks and six other eminent citizens. The board wisely selected Dr. Haygood to administer the annual revenue, carrying out the Slater fund, and his administration has been administered in no partisan, sectional or sectarian spirit, of a generous patriotism and an enlightened Christian faith.

Dr. Haygood has been a member of the Freedmen's Aid Society, and other philanthropic agencies. In the execution of his duties and surveying the situation that he might act intelligently, he traveled 20,000 miles in a single year, everywhere speaking in behalf of philanthropy and using the influence of his personal presence to stimulate local education and other benevolent enterprises. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

He has rounded out physically during the last two quadrants until he has grown to a bishop's girth, and is able to do his chair. His vigorous health and untiring energy will enable him to do a vast amount of work.

He is broad-thoughted, tolerant, brave, and everywhere "under the tongue of good report."

Dr. Haygood is not a member of the General Conference—a circumstance which explains the fact that, having transferred from Georgia to Alabama during the electoral year, he was not eligible to be elected.

Dr. Haygood is an author. His latest work, "The Man of Galilee," is having an unprecedented run for a book of the kind. It is a volume of sermons and hundreds of pamphlets, and has been translated into several languages. He has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers, and has been a member of the National Association of Christian Workers.

_____

[illegible]

THE ELEGANT DINING ROOM FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,
—SECOND FLOOR—
Delicatessen Building, 713 Olive St.
Is Now Open.
OLD ROCK BAKERY,
417 LUCAS AV.
Now is your time for light meals and the old landmark is the place where to get them.

CITY NEWS.
WHETHER it rains or snows or shines! you will certainly miss it if you don't follow the crowd to-day to the Great Extension Sale now in full swing at D. Crawford & Co's.

Dr. E. C. Chase,
Corner of 9th and Olive streets, Set of teeth, $8.
PRIVATE matters skillfully treated and medicines furnished. Dr. Dinsmore, 814 Pine street.

AN UNPRECEDENTED STORM.
The Heaviest Fall of Rain Ever Known Here—Interesting Episodes.

Yesterday's rainstorm was the most violent in the history of St. Louis. It did not last as long as others had, but in one hour 2.28 inches fell, and that eclipses every other effort the weather has made to drown out the city. The suddenness with which the storm began is responsible for many a drowning. Forest Park was filled with visitors, the Fair Grounds held a crowd, grip cars were loaded and the sidewalks thronged with people out for a Sunday stroll and a little fresh air. The clouds had been rather threatening all day and the atmosphere damp and murky, but the storm burst with scarcely a moment's warning and with such fury that exclaimations were drowned before they well knew it had begun to rain.

The damage done was mostly the result of overflows. The wind was not bad and the stories about ballstones as large as men's fists and goose eggs were only repetitions of the old yarns. There would have been some cracked skulls if they had been true. A broken sewer pipe caused the overflow of the Post-office flow in the Federal building. The connection with the Mill Creek sewer caused the trouble. Six geese were drowned in the cellar of the saloon on Seventh and Wash streets. Mud and rubbish choked the catch-basins on Cass avenue, and between Eleventh and Twelfth streets the water stood in great pools. The water stood nearly three feet deep at the crossing of the Northern Central and Cass avenue tracks on Seventh and Wash streets, and the passengers on the open cars had to stand on the seats to keep out of the water.

It was a local storm. No other place in the country reported more than an ordinary rainfall.

We Are Making Black Cheviot Suits to Order for $35.

For summer wear we show in our merchant tailoring department all of the latest novelties of foreign fabrics for strictly hot weather.

MILLS & AVERILL,
S. E. Cor. Broadway and Pine.
CAPTURING A CARRIAGE.

The Charge Which "Sweet William" Will Have to Answer.

William Gordon, alias "Sweet William," a familiar figure about the corridors of the principal hotels in the city, is under arrest at the Four Courts, charged in a warrant sworn out yesterday afternoon, with fraud. It seems that on Friday morning the man in charge of the lobby stable kept by C. P. Eberle, at 1100 St. Ange avenue, received a telephone communication saying that a Mr. Barstow wanted a carriage for the rest of the day. As Barstow was a regular customer the man sent the carriage in charge of an attendant of the Lindell Hotel as had been requested. Gordon is alleged to have taken the stable by an unknown colored boy. Later it was learned that Mr. Barstow had not ordered any carriage, and the investigation was commenced which resulted in Gordon's arrest. Gordon's business is the carrying of passengers for hire in the city. It is hardly probable that a case of fraud can be made against him under the requirements of proof, even if the allegations are substantiated. Officer Dowling made the arrest.

FINE IMPORTED POTTERIES.
Largest of New Goods, Lowest Prices.
Serves Pieces from $25.00 to $2,100.
Royal Worcester from $5.00 to $130.00.
Doulton from $2.50 to $125.00.
Crown Derby from $15.00 to $100.00.
Pompton's and Farnival, $2.50 to $40.00.
Zsolnay and Teplitz, $2.50 to $125.00.
Adderly and Crescent, $1.50 to $20.00.
Also Dresden, Belleek, Haviland, Coalport, Spode and others.

MERMOD & JACARD JEWELRY CO.
Corner Broadway and Locust.
A GIRL RESCUED.

An Infamous Piece of Work Which Should Be Severely Punished.

At the request of Samuel Saunders of Duquoin, Ill., Serg. Garvin and Officers Hannahan and Fox went to a house kept by Mollie Hutton at 518 Spruce street and took out a 15-year-old girl named Mollie Morgan. It seems that the girl was several days ago enticed away from her home in Murphysboro, Ill., by a woman known as Mrs. Mary Chitwood, who passed through the place accompanied by a 12-year-old girl who she introduced as her daughter. Mrs. Morgan followed her erring child, and with the assistance of Mr. Saunders, a friend of the family, located her in the house from which she was taken. There is a man in the case, but she has not been named. Mrs. Morgan will take her daughter home. The keeper of the house, Mollie Hutton, was arrested and her car was impounded in the First District Police Court on the charge of harboring a female under age.

Fine Lecture and Fine Music.
Francis Willard's lecture and music by St. George's Choir, Tuesday evening, May 20, Pickwick Theater. Reserved seats at Ingalls' 1100 Olive.

Funeral of Mr. L. J. Stead.
This morning at 9:30 requiem high mass was celebrated at St. Malachy's Catholic Church, at Ewing and Clark avenue, over the remains of Lawrence J. Stead, a popular young man, who died at his home, 8508 Chouteau avenue, Saturday afternoon, after a protracted illness.

The deceased was 36 years of age, unmarried, and was born and reared in the neighborhood in which he breathed his last. He had many warm friends, who sincerely mourn his death.

820 Suits $9.85, $25 Suits $13.65.
A few days longer finest Baltimore tailor-made suits, Princes Alberts, cutaways and sacks, finest imported materials, silk-faced or plain. GLOBE, 705 to 713 Franklin Avenue.

Craps Players Run In.
Officers Scully and Danaher and a squad of Central District men took nine players and a keeper out of Henry Dues's crap game at 209 North Seventh street Saturday night. The players were sent up to the First District Police Court, while Sam Powell will go to the Court of Criminal Correction on a warrant.

VISITORS TO THE CITY
Should not fail to enjoy visiting the MERMOD & JACARD JEWELRY ESTABLISHMENT (the grandest in the world), corner Broadway and Locust, and see the marvelous array of lovely diamonds, watches, cut glass, silverware and art goods and note the low prices asked for them.

Tourists and visitors are received and treated with special courtesy.

SATURDAY, 10:30 P. M.
You Cannot Guess and Go to Europe After That Day and Hour.

Importance of Sending Guessing Coupons in Envelopes Separate From Ballots.

You Will Lose All Your Guesses Sent in That Way After Next Wednesday—Reason for the Rule—The Coupon Appears Again To-Day—Cut It Out and Fill It With Your Estimate of the Number of Votes the Winning Teacher Will Receive in the Popular Election—If You Come Nearest to the Figure You Go to Europe.

Do not put your guessing coupons in the same envelopes with your ballots for the teachers.

Because after Wednesday next no envelopes containing ballots will be opened until after the polls close on Wednesday, May 22. This is the official ruling of the judges.

The guessing contest does not close until Saturday next at 10:30 p. m.

You will see, therefore, that guessing coupons which reach this office in the same package with ballots after Wednesday next will be lost, because said packages will not be opened until long after the guessing contest has been closed.

You will have three days after Wednesday next to fill guessing coupons, but be sure to separate them from your ballots.

The guessing coupon is printed in this issue of the POST-DISPATCH. It will be printed in five succeeding issues. Then the contest will be at an end. Then will begin the search through the great heaps of coupons on file in the POST-DISPATCH building for the successful guess on the vote the highest winner in the teachers' contest will have received. The successful guesser will be sent to Europe under the care of the Cook Tourist Co. at the expense of the POST-DISPATCH. The winner will travel through Europe without charge for transportation, hotel, carriages or courier. This costly and valuable prize will be bestowed without conditions or restrictions, without the exception of any kind of service. It will be a free gift to the winner.

Guess the vote cast for the leading teacher and go to Europe.

If no one guesses the exact number the prize will go to the one who guesses nearest it.

All guesses must be written on the official coupon printed in the POST-DISPATCH.

The guess should be cut from the paper, the guess written in the white space that is surrounded by scroll work. The guesser's own name and address in full should be written in the spaces indicated. The filled coupon should be then inclosed in an envelope, a 2-cent stamp affixed to the envelope for every thirty coupons or less number inclosed, and the following address written on the envelope:

GUESS ON TEACHERS' CONTEST.
POST-DISPATCH,
ST. LOUIS, MO.

The envelope thus addressed will be certain to reach the POST-DISPATCH building, where the coupons will be numbered mechanically in the order of their receipt and filed. No acknowledgment of the receipt of the coupons will be made, as the guesses are so numerous that more space would be required than could be given for them.

The contest began on April 14 and will close at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night.

No limit has been put on the number of guesses one person can send in. Guess as often as you have a coupon.

The contest is open to every one, except employees of the POST-DISPATCH.

THE GUESSING COUPON.

This is the coupon—Put your estimate of the vote in the white space surrounded by the scrollwork.

GUESSER'S NAME:

ADDRESS:

DATE OF GUESS:

CLOCKS, GOOD CLOCKS.
$1.25 to $200.

See our immense stock of the warranted clocks and note our low prices.

MERMOD & JACARD JEWELRY CO.,
Corner Broadway and Locust.

Run Over a Boy.
Five-year-old Aaron Goldstein was run over by a wagon in charge of George McCarthy, in front of 719 Wash street, on Saturday. He received a scalp wound, about two inches long, above his left ear. McCarthy was arrested by Officer Curley, charged with careless driving.

SICK HEADACHE—Carter's Little Liver Pills

SICK HEADACHE—Carter's Little Liver Pills

SICK HEADACHE—Carter's Little Liver Pills

SICK HEADACHE—Carter's Little Liver Pills

MANHOOD RESTORED.

"NANATIVO," the wonderful Spanish Remedy, is sold with a Written Guarantee to cure all Nervous Diseases, such as Weak Memory, Loss of Brain Power, Headache, Wakefulness, all drains and loss of power of the Generative Organs, in either sex, caused by over-exertion, youthful indiscretions, or the excessive use of tobacco, opium, or stimulants, which ultimately lead to Infertility, Consumption and Insanity. Put up in convenient form to carry in the vest pocket. Price $1 a package, or 6 for $5. With every $5 order we give a valuable guarantee to cure or refund the money. Sent by mail to any address. Circular free. Mention this paper. Address: MADRID CHEMICAL CO., Branch Office: U.S.A. 417 Broadway Street, CHICAGO, ILL.

Wells-Wilson Drug Co., Sixth & Washington Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Wells-Wilson Drug Co., Corner Broadway & Olive Streets.

THIRD WEEK

OF THE

MOST SUCCESSFUL SUIT SALE EVER HELD IN ST. LOUIS!

The Extraordinary Values offered out of $250,000 April Purchase without a parallel in the history of the Clothing Business.

$35.00 Suits (Of the finest imported material, tailor-made and elegant fitting, first-class in all respects; all the latest styles in sacks and cutaway frocks. 149 styles to select from.) FOR $15

DON'T Confound these Suits with those so largely advertised by Clothiers who vainly attempt to imitate our prices for $15. If you want Suits of that kind we have thousands of them for $10 and less.

$25.00 Suits These Suits, from our Great April Purchase, are the GRANDEST VALUES ever offered in this country for TEN DOLLARS. They embrace the latest and nobbiest styles in Sacks and Cutaways, and were made up to sell for $25, $20, $18.50 and $15. 139 styles to choose from. Take your choice for $10.

$20.00 Suits FOR $10

$18.50 Suits

$15.00 Suits

BOYS' KNEE-PANT Suits, $3.35!

Worth $6.50, $7.50 and $8.50, all the nobby styles, part of our Great April Purchase; no such bargains ever seen in St. Louis; fit Boys 4 to 14. Your pick for $3.85. 33 Styles.

Men's and Youths' Pants

Out of Our Great April Purchase. GRANDEST BARGAINS ON RECORD.

$2, $2.50 and $3 Pants for $1.50

$4, $4.50 and $5 Pants for $2.50

$5, $6 and $7 extra fine Pants for $3.50

$7.50, $8.50 and $10 Tailor-Made Pants of imported Woolens, elegant patterns and perfect fitting. $5

See Our Great Broadway and Morgan Street Window Displays.

EMBROIDERIES.

Special Prices for Monday and Tuesday.

45c Embroidery Flouncing for 35c

65c Embroidery Flouncing for 50c

1.00 Embroidery Flouncing for 75c

1.25 Embroidery Flouncing for 1.00

1.50 Embroidery Flouncing for 1.15

Watch This Space for Bargains in Ladies' Goods.

The Evening Sun!

A Very Stylish and Elegant Hat

For Gents and Young Men, universally worn in the East. Light, cool and nobby. We have them in nine different shades at a low figure.

$1.75.

Our competitors ask you $2.50 for them.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—On Saturday we closed out Chas. Steinberg's Bankrupt Stock of Men's and Boys' Fine Hats, which we will shortly place on sale at less than 50c on the dollar. DUE NOTICE WILL BE GIVEN.

SPECIAL DRIVE IN UNDERWEAR

Gents' Fancy Stripe Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers. French Collarets, cut from 50c to 20c per garment.

Line of Imported Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers

FANCY STRIPE AND ELEGANT GOODS, CUT FROM

$1.50 Down to $1.10 Per Suit.

LOW SHOES AND OXFORD TIES!

An elegant line of these goods for Ladies and Misses, in all shades and combinations. $1.25 to $5.00

Misses' Tennis and Fancy Trimmed Canvas Shoes, Ladies' and Misses' Heel and Spring-Heel Cloth-Top Shoes.

All the Latest Novelties.

FAMOUS—BROADWAY and MORGAN.

A choice of 1,000 Useful and Ornamental Presents free from our Japanese Bazaar with purchases of Clothing of $3.00 and over.

Send for our Illustrated Catalogue.

Open till 10 p. m. Saturday.

HUMPHREY'S. ST. LOUIS, MO., May 19, 1890.

The local forecast for St. Louis is fair; cooler.

LUCKY FINDS.

There have been many lucky finds in unexpected places. A rag-picker in New York recently found a beautiful diamond out of an ash barrel, and a man in Chicago found a gold coin containing $500 in one of the depots of that windy city. Quite a lucky find, as it turned out to be, was made in this city this past week. Coming in from the country early in the morning, a gentleman picked up a small piece of the word CLOTHING directed his attention, and being in need of a Spring Overcoat he thought he would see if he could not be suited here. Of course he was. But where the luck especially came in was here! He secured one of those $30 garments we have been offering for $15. Have you seen them? We've a number left yet reduced from $20, $25 and $30 to just $15.

Our line of Business Suits at $15, $18, $20 and $25 are worth finding, too. Don't fail to see our unrivaled assortment of Flannels and Madras Shirts. We can show you styles exclusively ours. You'll not see them elsewhere.

F. W. HUMPHREY & CO.,
BROADWAY AND PINE.

EXCITING SCENES!

A FEW DAYS LONGER.

$20, $25 and $30 Suits, $9.85 and $13.65.

Silk and Satin-Faced Garments of Foreign and Domestic Material, PRINCE ALBERTS, CUTAWAYS and SACKS. As the rush still continues, this sale has been extended a few days longer.

Children's Nobby All-Wool Cheviot Suits, $3.75.

They are a great deal better goods than those our competitors claim to be worth $7.50 and $10. We don't say so.

Men's Good Cheviot Pants, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.

Finest Merchant-Tailor Pants, including Seamless Pants, $3.50 to $6.

Gents' $3.50 Cash Shoes, all styles, $2.35.

Ladies' French Dongola Button $3 Shoes, $1.85.

$1.25 Star Waists, 65c; fine Silk-Striped French Flannel Shirts $1 and $1.50; fine Fancy Balbriggan Underwear, 60c.

Handsome Clocks with every Suit at $10 and above; Patent Stilts or Base Ball Outfit Free with Children's Suits.

GLOBE, 705, 707, 709, 711, 713 FRANKLIN AVENUE.

Open Every Evening until 9, Saturdays until 11. Country orders carefully and promptly filled.

TIME TABLE

Of Trains Running into Union Depot—St. Louis Time.

*Except Sundays; (Daily) (Except Saturday); (Except Monday); (Monday).

BURLINGTON ROUTE.

Through trains to Kansas City, St. Joseph, Denver, St. Paul and Minneapolis. Pullman Sleepers on all trains and Tourist Cars on all west-bound trains.

(Depart. Arrive.)

BURLINGTON ROUTE—ST. L. & N.W. R. R.

St. Paul, Cedar Rapids and Burlington Express. * 9:10 am * 5:40 pm

Denver, Lincoln, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Joseph and Burlington Express. * 6:15 pm * 7:30 am

Hannibal, Quincy, St. Louis and Quincy Express. * 8:45 pm * 6:30 am

St. Louis and Quincy Express. * 8:45 pm * 6:30 am

BURLINGTON ROUTE—C. & N.W. R. R.

St. Paul, Peoria, Dubuque and La Crosse Express. * 9:15 am * 5:15 pm

St. Louis, Peoria, Dubuque and La Crosse Express. * 9:15 am * 5:15 pm

VANDALIA LINE.

Pennsylvania Special, daily. * 8:10 am * 7:40 pm

Day Express, daily. * 8:40 am * 7:10 pm

Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily. * 8:40 am * 7:10 pm

Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily. * 8:40 am * 7:10 pm

Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily. * 8:40 am * 7:10 pm

Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily. * 8:40 am * 7:10 pm

Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily. * 8:40 am * 7:10 pm

Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily. * 8:40 am * 7:10 pm

Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily. * 8:40 am * 7:10 pm

Chicago and St. Louis Express, daily. * 8:40 am * 7:10 pm

